SECTION 3 RESIDENTS

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is Section 3?

Section 3 is a provision of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, which recognizes that HUD funds are typically one of the largest sources of federal funding expended in communities through the form of grants, loans, entitlement allocations and other forms of financial assistance.

Section 3 is intended to ensure that when employment or contracting opportunities are generated because a covered project or activity necessitates the employment of additional persons or the awarding of contracts for work, to the greatest extent feasible preference must be given to low- and very low-income persons particularly those who are recipients of government assistance, AND to businesses that provide economic opportunities to low-to very-low persons.

2. What is Shelby County DPD's requirements regarding Section 3?

As a recipient of HUD financial assistance meeting the funding thresholds of Section 3, DPD is required to the greatest extent feasible to comply with all provisions of 24 CFR Part 135. This includes providing preference to Section 3 residents on select projects. Preference to Section 3 residents means that Shelby County DPD and DPD award recipients establish procedures to direct – “to the greatest extent feasible” – all employment opportunities to Section 3 residents.

3. Are there goals established by DPD to meet the federal requirements of Section 3?

Yes, the following goals are established for projects governed by Section 3:

Section 3 Businesses (projects valued at $100,000 or more)

To the greatest extent feasible, at least ten percent (10%) of the total dollar amount of a construction contract shall be awarded to Section 3 businesses.

To the greatest extent feasible, at least three percent (3%) of the total dollar amount of a non-construction contract shall be awarded to Section 3 Businesses.

Section 3 Residents (applies to all projects)

Thirty percent (30%) of new positions generated during a one year period must be filled “to the greatest extent feasible” with low – to very low- income residents.

Employment goals are based on new hires, which are defined as full-time employees for permanent, temporary, or seasonal employment opportunities.

4. What does the term Section 3 resident mean?

A “Section 3 resident” is:

- A public housing resident; or

- A low- or very low-income person residing in the metropolitan area or non-metropolitan county in which the Section 3 covered assistance is expended.

Residents that qualify as Section 3 will be included on a list to receive preference in the hiring process for new positions on select federally-funded projects.

5. How is “low-income” determined?

The term “low-income” is used in the Section 3 regulation to include both low- and very low-income individuals. Local income levels can be obtained online at: <http://www.huduser.org/DATASETS/il.html>

6. How is “Metropolitan area” and “Non-metropolitan County” defined?

Metropolitan area means a metropolitan statistical area (MSA), as established by the Office of Management and Budget. Non-metropolitan County means any county outside of a metropolitan area.

7. How does Section 3 differ from the Minority Business Enterprise/Women Business Enterprise programs?

Section 3 is both race and gender neutral. The preferences provided under this regulation are based on income-level and location. The Section 3 regulations were designed to encourage recipients of HUD funding to direct new employment and contracting opportunities to low-income residents, and the businesses that employ these persons, within their community regardless of race and/or gender.

8. How may a resident be granted Section 3 status with Shelby County DPD for select projects governed by Section 3.

An individual may be given consideration as a Section 3 resident by completing a Section 3 Resident Certification Form and a Section 3 Resident Profile Form. All documents will be reviewed by the Department of Housing. Confirmation of Section 3 status will be provided in writing.
